Treasurer's Report:

Beginning Bank Balance: $4062.35

Ending Bank Balance: $3783.97

Capital One 360: $2438.84. The reason this is lower is because we took $5000.00 out to pay the storage unit and the community center. If we pay a year in advance at the storage unit, we get a month free.

Polly Taylor from the Greater Maple Valley Community Center was at the meeting selling raffle tickets.

The theme of the meeting was HUGS night. Throughout the year when HUGS quilts are turned in, member's names are entered into a drawing on tickets. We had about 60 tickets in the bin.

2014 Quilt Show: With the theme being secret garden this year, we want to have a white picket fence with geraniums and an antique bicycle leaning up against the wall. We want to have tons of flowers up on the wall. Several people made flowers tonight. We have until August to finish them up!

There are a couple of changes this year regarding quilt show judging and dates to enter your quilts. The last day to enter your quilt with the online form is 6/27/14 this year. You have to have been a member for 90 days before that (3/28/14) in order to enter a quilt in the show. We will have a workshop this year to answer questions regarding judging and how the quilts are handled once they are turned in. We will also have a workshop to assist with the online form for entering your quilts into the show. Drop off this year will also be with Kathy Scott and the dates will be 7/11 & 7/12. Judging will be about a week after that.
